

STAFF ATTORNEY - UNACCOMPANIED CHILDREN PROGRAM

Wenatchee, WA

Full-Time, Exempt

Optional Hybrid

<https://nwirp.org/join/jobs-internships/>

SUMMARY:

NWIRP is seeking a full-time English-Spanish bilingual attorney to be placed in our Wenatchee office.

As an attorney in the Unaccompanied Children Program, you will provide direct representation, individual consultations, and community outreach and education to unaccompanied children and youth facing removal (deportation) proceedings. You will also assist children and youth in applying for various forms of immigration protection, including Special Immigrant Juvenile (SIJ) classification, asylum, self petitions under VAWA, U visas, T visas, and adjustment of status before USCIS. UCP attorneys also handle Washington State court proceedings related to a child or youth's eligibility for SIJ classification. The staff attorney may also be assigned work relating to other immigration matters, including cases of people in immigration detention.

This position is expected to travel to the immigration court in Seattle (and occasionally in Tacoma), and state courts in specific counties across WA State. A valid driver's license will be required in order to meet these expectations (though a vehicle is provided). The position may involve evening and weekend work hours.

Under NWIRP's current COVID policies, new staff members must provide proof of COVID-19 vaccination (unless eligible for an exemption). Staff may choose to wear a face mask in the workplace, but it is not currently required. At the time of this posting, NWIRP staff is operating in a hybrid model, and some in-office work will be expected of this position (at least two days per week). The position is also eligible for the choice of a full-time in-person work model. A minimum two-year commitment to this position is expected.

BENEFITS AND COMPENSATION:

The beginning annual salary for attorneys with no experience is $78,132.50 and, upon admission to bar, rises to $80,771.93. Salary increases with specific types of experience: For example, for someone with 10 years of qualifying experience, the annual salary would be $101,742.62; 20 years would be $117,936.58.

NWIRP is proud to be a unionized employer, and this full-time position is covered by NWIRP's Collective Bargaining Agreement. NWIRP offers a generous benefits package, including:

- Fully paid health, vision & dental plans for employee-level coverage with employer-funded HRA and HSA options
- FSA and Dependent Care accounts
- Automatic employer contribution of 3% to 403(b) retirement plan
- 12 days of paid health leave per year
- 16 days paid vacation in your first year (with additional days in subsequent years)
- 12 weeks of paid parental leave after 6 months of employment, plus the ability to extend with state-paid leave

- 14 paid Holidays with the ability to float 5 holidays
- Paid authorized absences for attending workshops, conferences and other educational/training programs
- Employer-paid disability/life/AD&D coverage; Long-term care insurance
- 4 weeks of paid sabbatical after every five years of employment at NWIRP
- Eligibility to earn compensatory time
- Relocation bonus up to $4,000, based on distance of relocation
- Free parking on site

Staff attorneys who have a minimum of three years of active practice of law, have opportunities for promotion to Supervising Attorney.

NWIRP is also an eligible employer under the Federal Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF) program.

COMMITMENT TO INCLUSIVITY, EQUITY AND REPRESENTATION:

Northwest Immigrant Rights Project is an equal opportunity employer committed to having a diverse staff, board, and volunteer base reflective of the communities we serve and that enhances our ability to create a vibrant environment where all members of the NWIRP community thrive. We strongly encourage applications from individuals who identify as Black, Indigenous, People of Color (BIPOC), immigrants (including people who were formerly detained, undocumented, or who have navigated the immigration legal system), women, people with disabilities, members of the LGBTQ+ community, and individuals with diverse cultural backgrounds and language abilities.

NWIRP is committed to providing a work environment free from discrimination and harassment. NWIRP does not discriminate on the basis of class, race, color, sex, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status, political ideology, age, creed, religion, ancestry, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability. Excepting any undue hardship, NWIRP will provide reasonable accommodations upon request for candidates taking part in all aspects of the selection process. Please contact HR@nwirp.org.

ABOUT NORTHWEST IMMIGRANT RIGHTS PROJECT:

Founded in 1984, Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP) is a nationally-recognized legal services organization on the front lines of defending and advancing the rights of immigrants. Each year, NWIRP provides direct legal representation and assistance in immigration matters to thousands of people with low incomes who come from over 150 countries and speak over 60 different languages. NWIRP challenges unjust policies through high-impact lawsuits and advocates for laws and policies that respect the rights of immigrants. NWIRP is also a trusted provider of immigration-related community education for immigrant communities and social service providers. NWIRP has a staff of over 150 and an annual budget of over $20 million. NWIRP serves the community through four offices in Washington State (Granger, Seattle, Tacoma and Wenatchee), but the impact of our work is felt nationwide.

NWIRP's Wenatchee Office is located in the heart of Washington State, nestled in the foothills of the Cascade mountain range, and at the confluence of the Columbia and Wenatchee Rivers. The Greater Wenatchee area is home to 116,000 residents. With its scenic orchards and growing wine industry, Wenatchee also boasts easy access to rivers, lakes, hiking trails, and its own downhill ski resort, Mission Ridge. The current staff of 16 serves clients from Central and Northeastern Washington and its client base consists largely of farmworkers and their families.
